

Presenter Profile

Alicia Vera
Director, Property Tax
Altus Group

Alicia Vera is the Director, Property Tax at Altus Group, and is involved in all aspects of assessment and tax management and currently represents numerous clients with large provincial and national property portfolios.

Alicia graduated with honours from the Real Property Administration (Assessment and Appraisal) program and the Paralegal program at Seneca College. Along with her diplomas, Alicia has also received an Honours Bachelor of Arts Degree in Law with a concentration in Business Law from Carleton University. Alicia is an Accredited member of the Institute of Municipal Assessors and a licensed paralegal with the Law Society of Upper Canada.

Her role as Director at Altus entails managing assessment and taxation matters for regional and national clients. Alicia manages well over 200 assets, specializing in income producing properties. She has a great deal of experience in office and mixed-use. The role incorporates property tax assessment research, analysis and valuation, advocacy and managing the appeal process with the Assessment Review Board. Alicia has appeared as an expert before the Assessment Review Board and has also participated in Alternative Dispute Resolutions.